Celebrating the 100th Meeting of G-24 Ministers and Governors

The G77 forms the G-24 in 1971

“ It is entirely unacceptable that vital decisions about the future of the international monetary system which are of concern to the entire world community are sought to be taken by a limited group of countries outside the framework of the IMF.”

-1971, Second Ministerial Meeting of the Group of 77, “The Declaration and Principles of the Action Programme of Lima”

“The purpose of the Meeting was to establish the position of the developing countries on the several fundamental issues concerning the reform of the international monetary system within the terms of reference specified in the declaration and working program of Lima.”

-First Communiqué of the G-24, April 1972

Topic: Major Migrant Crisis in Europe (1819)

Director of the G24 Secretariat Marilou Uy claims that the international community should pay more attention to the current refugee influx.

LIMA (Sputnik). Liudmila Chernova — The international community should pay more attention to the current refugee influx and help the hosting developing countries handle it in a timely fashion, Director of the G24 Secretariat Marilou Uy told Sputnik on the sidelines of the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank.

“... we were very concerned that the emerging and developing economies most disproportionately affected by the crisis, especially in the Arab world, would have the support of the international community for refugees,” Uy said

Director of the G24 Secretariat Marilou Uy said that G24 members will keep urging the implementation of the 2010 quota reform to give more voting power to emerging market nations.

LIMA (Sputnik). Liudmila Chernova — G24 member-states will keep urging implementation of the 2010 quota reform that gives more voting power to emerging market nations, Director of the G24 Secretariat Marilou Uy told Sputnik on the sidelines of the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank.

“We advocate for the continued efforts to realign the quota shares and increase the voice of emerging and developing countries in the IMF. We will continue doing that and we will continue creating awareness among the membership about the importance of this,” Uy said on Thursday.

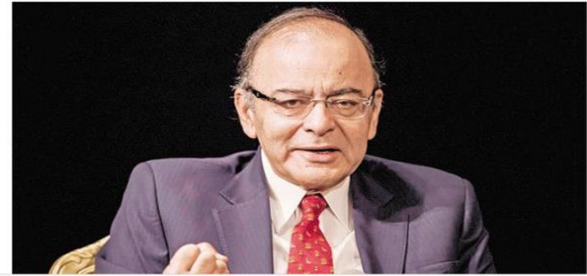

G24 countries calls for policy to deal with fallout of Fed rate hikes

These countries also expressed their disappointment at the lack of progress on IMF's reform agenda announced in 2010

Conferences — G-24 Technical Group on Debt Management

Sri Lanka hosts a debt management conference of G-24 ;

Finance Minister Mangala Samaraweera yesterday sounded an alarm over the debt repayments of developing countries, including Sri Lanka, warning that changes in global financial markets demanded stronger macroeconomic policies and institutions for debt management to meet looming repayment deadlines.
