G-24 Statement on the Earthquake in Morocco

The Intergovernmental Group of Twenty-Four on International Monetary Affairs and Development (G-24), expresses its deepest condolence to the people of the Kingdom of Morocco at this difficult time. The terrible loss of lives due to the devastating earthquake is inconceivable, and we commiserate with the government, families, and relatives of the affected as they come to terms with the tragic incident.

The G-24 expresses its solidarity and support to the people of Morocco, and thanks the international community, relief agencies and private philanthropic organizations that have rallied round to assist with disaster management and recovery.

We call on the global community to stand ready to provide the necessary financial and humanitarian support to ensure a fast recovery.
